

Peer Review Starter

CURRIC 277 F25

by Qian Liu

---

DATE

09152025

---

01 — INLINE COMMENTS

When adding your 3+ inline comments, the following starters might be helpful:

Praise + Suggestion

- “This section is clear because _____. but it could be stronger if _____.”
- “I like how you explained _____. You might add an example of _____ to make it more convincing.”
- “This part is well organized. Expanding on _____ would show more depth.”
- “Your idea here is strong, but adding evidence about _____ would make it more feasible.”

Identify Areas to Improve

- “This argument seems less feasible because _____. You could consider _____.”
- “I don’t fully understand _____. Could you clarify or explain more about _____?”
- “This part feels too brief; maybe you could add more details on _____.”
- “The connection between _____ and _____ isn’t obvious. Try making it clearer.”
- “This point repeats earlier ideas. You might combine them into one stronger section.”

02 — END-OF-REVIEW PARAGRAPHS (IN THE COMMENT BOX)

Encourage Further Thinking

- “An alternative approach could be ____, which may open new possibilities.”
- “I noticed you mentioned ____ earlier. It connects with _____. Maybe highlight that link.”
- “Have you considered another approach, such as ____?”
- “What would happen if you explained ____ in a different way?”
- “This section makes me think of _____. Maybe you could connect the two.”

Paragraph 1 – What works well (3–5 sentences)

- “One strength of your proposal is that... This helps the reader because...”
- “I also found ... very effective since it shows/clarifies...”
- “Overall, your main idea is clear and the structure is easy to follow.”

Paragraph 2 – How to improve (3–5 sentences)

- “One area you could improve is... because...”
- “You might make your argument stronger by adding...”
- “Consider reorganizing ... so that it is easier to understand.”
- “It could also help to explain ... in more detail.”
- “To improve feasibility, you could suggest...”